

EpsomGuardian » Leisure »

LEISURE

WHAT'S ON | LIVE TRAVEL | FIND A TRADE

Last updated 18.32 with 0 incidents
Full Traffic Report »

Martin Amis at Book Now Festival

3:24pm Tuesday 10th November 2009

Print | Email | Share

By Will Gore »

When Martin Amis launches a new novel it is always accompanied by a storm of hype and speculation.

The hullabaloo that is gathering around the release of his latest book, The Pregnant Widow, is perhaps greater than ever.

Feverish speculation has been stoked by the fact the book has taken six years to arrive and there has been plenty of comment in the press surrounding characters supposedly based on the author's former girlfriends and his father, Kingsley.

Amis will be giving Richmond's Book Now festival a special preview of the novel at the Orange Tree Theatre on Sunday, with the book's subject matter finally out in the open.

"The book is about the sexual revolution in the 1970s," he says. "It is set in Italy one summer and there is a collection of young people staying in a castle. It is like a countryhouse mystery but the mystery is not a murder, but sex."

Amis says that although he started out writing a book inspired by his past, and elements of this made it to the final novel, The Pregnant Widow is far from being a piece of autobiography.

"It took me a very long time to write," he explains. "I had written this huge autobiographical novel that didn't work at all. I had an awful couple of weeks and then I realised I had written two novels and I had to separate them. The first part became The Pregnant Widow and it was a huge relief to be back in fiction."

Has he always struggled with autobiographical writing?

"Everyone finds it difficult. The only writer who has ever got anywhere with it in my view is Saul Bellow – the curious thing about life is that it is dead when you write it. It's a miracle Bellow got anywhere with it."

The title of The Pregnant Widow, according to the

Martin Amis at Book Now Festival

MOST READ | MOST COMMENTS

1. Tesco wins fight for Ashted supermarket
2. Water tower break-in leads to fresh calls for demolition
3. BREAKING NEWS: Tesco granted permission for Ashted store
4. LIVE: GCSE results and pictures
5. Teenagers have mobile phones stolen in Worcester Park
6. Epsom boy, 7, scores A* in maths GCSE
7. Cleaner charged with thefts from school
8. Chantelle and Preston reunited
9. Brass band celebrates its 100th birthday
10. Cash: Dons got what they deserved at Rushden

ADS BY GOOGLE

Mystery Guild @ Book
Get 5 Books For 99¢ When You Join. Try Us Risk Free Today!
www.MysteryGuild.com

Are You Writing A B
Publish Your Book Quickly & Easily. Get Your Free Publishing Guide Now!
www.iuniverse.com

Publish Your Novel
Get Your Novel Publishing Guide Mailed To Your doorstep At No Cost
www.xlibris.com/PublishNobel

Wholesale Book Print
Be your own publisher w/Max Profit We Print-on-Demand Super Quality www.podwholesale.com

centrale SHOPPING CENTRE, CROYDON any excuse

Because it never rains indoors

SEASIDE SPECIAL
Friday 6th – Monday 30th August
FREE ACTIVITIES

FEATURED JOBS

- Catering Croydon
- Be your own boss Kingston
- Assistant Manager Kingston
- Warehouse Apprenticeships Chessington
- Post Room Croydon
- Assistant Hairdresser Coulsdon

LOCAL LINKS

Pennsylvania Mom Lost 46lbs Following 1 Rule
I cut down 46lbs of stomach fat in a month by obeying this 1 rule Read More

Acai Berry Exposed (Official Test)
Want to use Acai berry? Do not use. Read this warning now. Read More

DON'T Pay For White Teeth
Pennsylvania Mom discovers one simple trick to turn yellow teeth white from home for under $5 Read More

LOCAL INFORMATION

Enter your postcode, town or place name

London [] S E A

House prices » Schools » Crime » Hospitals »

author, refers to a quote about revolutions by Russian philosopher Alexander Herzen, who said that when a revolution takes place we should, on the whole, be braced by the fact that one order has given way to another; but what we are left with is not a new born child, but a pregnant widow.

"It is almost the best thing said about revolutions," Amis adds. "They don't just end with the death of the old order but with a very painful birth of the new order. I think we are still living through the sexual revolution and will continue to do so for a long time."

While the new novel is primarily set in the 1970s, Amis reveals there are five sections in the book that bring the characters forward to the modern day and looks at how they, and the ideas behind the sexual revolution, have developed.

He has also included "a minor Islamic theme" which he says "has to do with how Muslims and Christians seemed to be getting on reasonably well and we had no idea that this millennium old hatred would burst forward on (September 11)."

Amis is no stranger to media controversy and it was the subject of Islam, or more specifically his condemnation of Islamism, that caused a very public spat with his University of Manchester colleague Terry Eagleton in 2007.

When he hit the news more recently for comments made about Jordan you would be forgiven for expecting these utterances to be concerned with problems in the Middle East.

In fact it was the glamour girl of the same name whom Amis poured scorn on at another literary festival, when discussing how she inspired a character in a novella he has recently completed called State of England.

Amis says that the character, called Threnody, does not play as big a role in the novella as the media storm would suggest, but her portrayal certainly contributes to his satirical and pessimistic take on the state of the nation.

"She is a minor character," he explains. "It is not Jordan but a rather different type of woman who gets about as much attention. My character is a poet, not a novelist, on the side as well as being a glamour model.

"I think it is slightly depressing that Jordan's autobiography is a best seller and people queue for five hours to meet her. What does that say about England?

"Snobbery has to start somewhere and if you can't be snobbish about Katie Price you are dead, you've gone."

Martin Amis, Book Now, Orange Tree Theatre, Richmond, November 15, 3pm, £10/£8.50, richmond.gov.uk/book_now_2009

 Print  Email  Share

S E A R

M O R E L E I S U R E S T O

- Game review: Kane and Lynch: Dog Days
- Game review: Alien Breed: Impact - PC
- Why so Sirius?
- Benet is back at The Bull's Head
- Our Town is taking shape
- Tony goes from Spandau to swing
- Strings attached at the Puppet Barge
- Jacobi to be king for a play

How To Get Published
We Discover & Market
New Authors! Retain
40% Royalties. Contact
Us

A D S B Y G O O G L E

H a v e Y o u W r i t t e n :

Publish With the Industry Leader Get Your Free Book Publishing Guide
www.Xlibris.com/WriteAndPublish

A r e Y o u W r i t i n g A

Publish Your Book Quickly & Easily. Get Your Free Publishing Guide Now!
www.iuniverse.com

T w o - F i s t e d B i r d W

Real Men Watch Birds. Meet The Bird Detective.
www.twofistedbirdwatcher.com

- Edinburgh Festival heads south to Clapham
- The Texas Tenors come across the pond

ALSO ONLINE TODAY

Epsom Rotary Club stalwart receives award

A Rotary Club stalwart from Epsom has been honoured with a special award.

Councillors appointed cycling champions for Epsom and Ewell

Two councillors have been appointed cycling champions to encourage residents to take up the activity.

BREAKING NEWS: Murder suspect extradited from Spain

A suspect in the murder case of a Nutfield woman was extradited from Spain yesterday.

Saturday of gigs and activities for young people at Rosebery Park

Young people will be able to chill out with gigs and activities at Rosebery Park tomorrow (Saturday, July 10).

WIN! Ireland goodies

Get your hands on a host of Ireland goodies in our competition in association with Tourism Ireland.

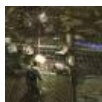

Cash: Dons got what they deserved at Rushden

First defeat of the season at Nene Park

Game review: Kane and Lynch: Dog Days

The first Kane and Lynch wasn't a big hitter, so it's something of a surprise that the gritty pair somehow got themselves a sequel.

Game review: Alien Breed: Impact - PC

The action is fast-paced and intense and plays a little like Contra, but from an isometric perspective.

Outside the Box has Edinburgh Fringe shows first

Outside the Box is continuing its season of Edinburgh previews next week with shows at Surbiton's cornerHOUSE, Kingston's Fighting Cocks and The Angel Inn in Thames Ditton. Tim Vine, Mark Watson and Reginald D Hunter will all be taking to the various stages as will Pappy's, the Chortle-award winning sketch group formerly known as Pappy's Fun Club. Tom Parry, from the trio, gave us the lowdown ahead of their two shows.

Game news: Worms Reloaded customisation trailer

Britsoft legends Team17 released a new video today highlighting the levels of customisation that can be found in Worms Reloaded.

 J O B S Find jobs Search Now »	 D A T I N G Find your ideal partner Search Now »	 H O M E S Find homes Search Now »	 C A R S Find cars Search Now »
News Sport Leisure Local Info Your Say Announce Business Education	Jobs Homes Cars Dating Shopping Directory Advertise

Contact Us | Subscribe | Photo Sales | Advertise | Archive | Topics | Announcements | Site Map | Buy & Sell

Terms & Conditions | Privacy Policy | © Copyright 2001-2010

Newsquest Media Group | A Gannett Company
This site is part of Newsquest's audited local newspaper network | Newsquest site network

	Pennsylvania Mom Lost 46lbs Following 1 Rule I cut down 46lbs of stomach fat in a month by obeying this 1 rule Read More	Read More
--	--	---------------------------	---